Edinburgh-based Gilded Balloon has secured a New Venue on Chambers Street

"The Gilded Balloon are absolutely thrilled to have been offered Adam House for the 2019 Fringe by the University of Edinburgh. It's a beautiful building, situated right in the heart of Edinburgh's Old Town, and one that has been part of the fabric of the Fringe for as long as Gilded Balloon has been going. We're excited about taking on the challenge of finding new shows, and the opportunity this new venture presents both artists and audiences."

- Karen and Katy Koren

From 2019, Gilded Balloon will be taking over the historic, Category B-listed Adam House in Chambers Street for the Edinburgh Festival Fringe.

There will be 5 venues within the building:

Doonstairs – Basement, 154 seats with fixed, year-round seating. Raised proscenium arch with a stage size of 6.7m depth, 6.2m width at proscenium and 7.5m down stage. Stage headroom 3.6m.

The Big Yin – 200+ seats with temporary steel deck raked seating. Thrust stage on floor with seating on 3 sides. Stage size of 6m deep x 6m wide. Stage headroom 2.8m.

The Other Yin – 150 seats with temporary steel deck raked seating. Black Box with seating rake, flat stage on floor. 5.5m depth x 8m width. Stage headroom 3.6m.

Dram – 60 seats black box.

Nip – 50 seats black box.

Ground Floor – Box Office and Bar. A large, vibrant bar with comfortable seating and will be open late every night of the Fringe with DJ residencies and music.

Drawings for these spaces are being put together as we speak and will be sent on as soon as possible.
